

Trust. Experience. Sustainability.

Residential building in Stephanstraße, Berlin

Your holistic property manager for the value-enhancing administration of your real estate

Retrospects. Insights. Outlook.

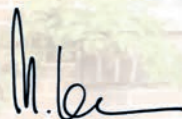

Are you looking for a competent property manager for the sustainable administration of your investment property? Or an experienced project developer for your construction project? Whatever concern you may have in the field of real estate – we are the right partner for you!

We see ourselves as a reliable, service-oriented and competent partner and provide our customers with wide-ranging expert knowledge and a comprehensive 360° service around their residential and investment properties.

Many things have changed in over 20 years of our company's history. But one thing remains the same: our high standards of quality. At ncn we take care of your properties as if they were our own.

In addition to advancing digitalization and the implementation of comprehensive, permanently changing legal requirements, the personal, individual contact and dialog with you as the property owner is of paramount importance to us. Mutual trust is the foundation of a successful business relationship. Thanks to our proven real estate expertise, personal commitment, team spirit, quick decision-making processes and long-term supply relationships with regional utility companies, we can easily meet these quality requirements.

Whether you are an investor, owner or landlord - we look forward to welcoming and serving you as a satisfied and content customer. Because meeting your needs is our top priority.

Best regards,
Mette Larsen, Managing Director
